Break, break, break,
  On thy cold gray stones, O Sea!
And I would that my tongue could utter
  The thoughts that arise in me.

O well for the fisherman's boy,
  That he shouts with his sister at play!
O well for the sailor lad,
  That he sings in his boat on the bay!

And the stately ships go on
  To their haven under the hill;
But O for the touch of a vanished hand,
  And the sound of a voice that is still!

Break, break, break,
  At the foot of thy crags, O Sea!
But the tender grace of a day that is dead
  Will never come back to me.

ALFRED TENNYSON

Maybe this was meant to be a dream
when it is over,

It is gone,
Like a dream goes when I wake up.
Nothing I can take with me
Brings me back to it .
All I have is memories
There may be some night when I am sad,
thinking back,
And knowing it is gone —
But I am not sad for having it.
I was happy, and learned a little
It is worth spending a day remembering,
Even with tears —

And when the morning comes
I may have another dream
Almost as good as this one.

The class of '74 would like to show its appreciation to a teacher who has been our sincere friend. His sense of humor and his concern for us have been important parts of this friendship. The carefree way in which he has joked around and ranked us is contrasted by the interest he has had in our achievements as well as our disappointments.

While other teachers hibernated in the teachers' rooms, he spent his free time with us . . . he talked to us in the halls, in studies, and at lunch . . . he challenged our efforts to sneak out for subs . . . he helped when we were trying to sell anything . . . he coached our Boys' Varsity Basketball team . . . he participated in student-teacher activities . . .

Whether we knew him as a coach, truancy spy, salesman, or simple friend, we will all remember him with a towel around his neck, a whistle in his hand, and a friendly word for everyone.

With these thoughts, we, the class of '74, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Clark Chatterton.

Cohasset High's Alternative Program

Cohasset High School's Alternative Program now includes 26 students and 5 teachers — and we hope to expand next year. We are both a school within the school and a school without the school because we take advantage of any outside learning experience that can help us — Boston, hospitals, community resources of all kinds. We are not held to regular procedures such as study halls, so that we may carry out the daily schedules that we design ourselves — with guidance from our advisors. Each faculty advisor in the Alternative School has about 6 students he works closely with. We have weekly 2-hour large group meetings, and are responsible for logging our own attendance. We feel we're getting somewhere; we feel we're making the most of our education; and we welcome your interest in the program!

Soccer '73

This year's soccer team started off on the right foot, as wins against Weymouth South and Bridgewater generated an enthusiatic atmosphere among the members of the second year team. But then a series of heart-breaking loses, including one to Duxbury in the last three seconds converted that enthusiasm to disappointment and apathy. The enthusiasm unfortunately was never restored and consequently a poor record resulted.

Wrap Up-

This year has been a very discouraging year for Cohasset High School sports. Some thought the basketball team might "break the ice" and pick-up where last year's team left off. This year's team, for the most part, was the team that went 16-0 two years ago. This was one reason there were such high hopes.

But due to inexperience, an ankle injury to co-captain Bob O'Rourke, and an exceptionally strong league, not to mention a string of disciplinary problems, the basketball team has only been able to muster four wins this season. If some 6-6 jumpin' jack moves into town over the summer, you can look for a very strong team next year. If not, Coach Chatterton will have his hands full, as the South Shore League will be strong next year also.

Always in the game.

Pete has scored again!

Peter Anderson — My . . . is killing me!

Phil Alexander — Can anyone stop Alexander (in practice)!?

Bill Lyons — There's still next year.

Oh! Is that cheerleader nice!

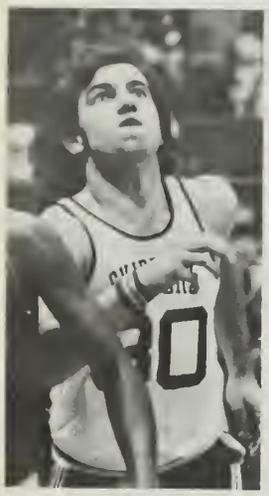
Brian Hines (co-capt) — Jerry Burke come back!

Bob O'Rourke (co-capt) — If only I could jump!

I'm noted for my hanz.

What can I say?

Masta up for a rebound



A face only a mother could love

Record (7-8) Wrap-Up

Even with a losing record, the Girls Basketball Team had lots of talents. Two of our players, Sal and Baz, made the All-Star Team, which was quite an achievement. We had a lot of bad luck with injuries, but ended the season with a tremendous victory over Middleboro, 60-31.

We are losing three seniors, Kathy, Sal, and Baz, which will leave us without any experienced forwards for next year. We are hoping that Mr. Deakin will return next year, and wish to thank him for the past 2 seasons.

Wrap-Up

The Hockey team, consisting of mostly underclassmen, has faired well in this year's South Shore League. The team is relatively small and has to hustle and scrap for every goal it gets. What they lack in ability they make up in desire.

They have struggled successfully through this year against some rough competition and have attracted a good amount of fan support in the process. If this team sticks together and loses no one else to "Preppiedom," they'll be a real threat in the next few years.

Coach McDermott, Coach Walsh

5:00 A.M. practice . . . only 3 seniors . . . always changing lines . . . small team . . . Flynn's fight . . . Cowen's nose . . . "Kuk" goes Preppie . . . victory over Holbrook . . .
